

Life Cycle of the Spotted Lanternfly

The Spotted Lanternfly goes through several appearances over the course of its life. It's important to know what each stage looks like in order to combat this invasive insect!

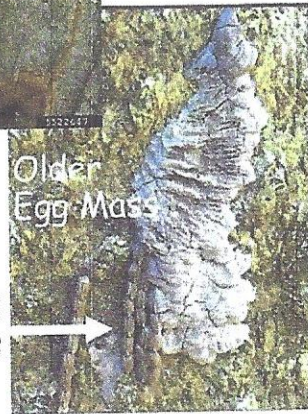

Adult (in flight)

There are four stages of development: eggs, two nymph stages and adult.

New Egg Mass

Older Egg Mass

Uncovered Egg Mass

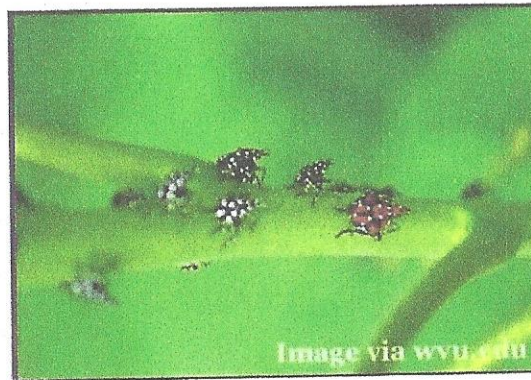

Image via wvu.edu

Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture